[XXIIIᵈ. YEAR.] THE [Nº. 1150.]

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1767.

CIVITA VECCHIA, June 20.

LAST Sunday a Ship Cargo of 200 Jesuits arrived here, which immediately failed for Corsica, not having been able to disembark at Corfica, as General Paoli had excited Mutiny in the Commander of the French Troops from procuring the neceſſary Subſiſtence for theſe Fathers, on Account of the Scarcity of Proviſions. It is believed that the Republic will ſettle theſe Jeſuits in the Maritime Places; at leaſt, if ſome Letters from Genoa may be credited, which inform, that if the Republic ſhould fail in its Engagement with the King of Spain, by refuſing to receive the above Fathers expelled from his Kingdom, his Moſt Chriſtian Majeſty will withdraw his Troops from Corſica.

LISBON, June 10. A Veſſel of War, and Three Tranſports, are ſailed from the Tagus, for the Azores, with Troops on board, for appeaſing a dangerous Tumult in the Iſle of Tercera, which is imputed to the Intrigues of the Jeſuits.

WARSAW, June 21. We are informed from Radom, that the Election of a Marſhal-General of the Confederacy, is to come on there To-morrow. This Confederacy, the like of which was never known before, actually conſiſts of 72,000 Gentlemen, and the Number is daily increaſing.

NAPLES, June 9. A Turkiſh Galley, coming from the Coaſt of Africa, and laden with Tributes for the Grand Signior, lately attacked a ſmall Corſican Veſſel; the Crew of which, being reſolved to defend themſelves to the laſt Extremity, boarded the Turk, and gave ſuch Proofs of their Valour as are almoſt incredible; but were almoſt overcome by the great Number of their Antagoniſts, when a Malteſe Galley, commanded by the Chevalier Roſſimini, came up to their Aſſiſtance, and boarding likewiſe the Turkiſh Galley, they ſoon made themſelves Maſters of it. The Corſicans had for their Share of the Prize ſome Pieces of Cannon, ſeveral Fire-Arms, a great Quantity of Ammunition, and 16,000 Pieces of Silver Money.

FLORENCE, June 20. Letters from Rome ſay, that the Cardinals are greatly divided in their Opinions with reſpect to the Manner in which the Pope ought to treat the Jeſuits.

GENOA, June 27. They write from Leghorn, that the Corſicans have fitted out a large Felucca in the Guiph of St. Lawrence, to cruize againſt the Genoeſe Ships. Letters from Buſtia adviſe, that there are but 150 Corſicans left in the Iſland of Capraia. That Sieur Barbiggi, who is appointed Governor of that Iſland, has ſent to Corſica all the Braſs Cannon in that Fortreſs, and ſupplied the Place with Iron Guns. He hath alſo ordered all the Entrenchments, made during the late Siege, to be deſtroyed, and Three ſmall Forts to be built for the Defence of the Iſland. In the laſt Aſſembly of the Malecontents held at Corte, it was reſolved to tax all the Inhabitants of the Iſland, One Thouſandth Part of their Eſtates, where they exceed the Value of One Thouſand Livres. The Produce of this Tax is to defray the Expence of the Siege of Capraia, and of the Subſiſtence of the Garriſon of that Place.

LONDON, July 11.

Private Advices from Liſbon mention, that Orders were lately iſſued for raiſing Ten Additional Regiments of Foot, which occaſioned much Speculation as to the Motive of ſuch a Meaſure in Time of a profound Peace.

A Letter from Verſailles, dated July 1, ſays, "An Officer is arrived here from Morocco, ſent by the Count de Breugnon, the King's Ambaſſador there, with Advice of a Peace having been concluded with the Emperor Muley Mahomet. This Treaty was ſigned the 30th of May laſt, when all the French Slaves, without Exception, were ſet at Liberty, and the Three Ships which were taken by the Moors, during the Time that this Negotiation was carrying on, were reſtored."

Extract of a Letter from Stockholm, June 30.

"The Subſidy-Treaty, which is on the Tapis between this Kingdom and Great-Britain, ſeems to be on the Point of Maturity, and there is no Doubt of its ſpeedy Concluſion. It is however certain, that many Perſons who have ſome Share in the Management of Affairs, have declared it as their Opinion, that it would be better for us to renew our Engagements of this Sort with France."

Extract of a Letter from Dantzick, June 22.

"The State of Affairs in this Kingdom becomes every Day more critical. The Facility with which the numerous Confederacies are formed, has no Example in Hiſtory. The chief Cauſes of theſe Leagues appears to be the Law made in the preſent Reign, by which the Power of the Two great Generals is very much limited, tho' the Alteration affects not thoſe who are at preſent inveſted with thoſe eminent Charges. The great Authority granted to the Board of Treaſury, has alſo given Diſguſt to many, though it was really neceſſary to the Public Weal. But, after all, if the laſt Diet had been more favourably diſpoſed to the Diſſidents, the laſt Declarations of the Court of Peterſburg, and Berlin, would not have appeared, and conſequently we ſhould not have ſeen all thoſe Confederacies which now ſeem to endanger the Public Tranquility."

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, July 4.

"The Expedition, conſiſting of Four Men of War and Tranſports, has been fitted out with greater Diſpatch than was ever uſual in this Place, and is ſailed. Theſe Ships are to take in Two Regiments that are quartered in the Province of Algarve, and are to be embarked from the Ports of Saint Uval and Tavira. General Bolen, a German Officer in this Service, is Commander in Chief. The certain Deſtination of this Armament, however, ſtill remains a profound Secret; for, though ſome People had thought it was to join the Spaniards againſt the Settlements of the Jeſuits in Paraguay; others, to quell an Inſurrection in the Iſland of Tercera; and others again, to put their Iſlands in ſome Poſture of Defence, from an Apprehenſion of the Court of England, on Account of Differences, it is now thought to be for a Matter of far greater Conſequence. Many of the People of Rio de Janeiro, complaining of the ill Treatment of their Governor, and the deſtructive Schemes with which their Trade has been oppreſſed of late Years, had quitted that Settlement, it is ſaid, and had retired into the Woods, where others had joined them.

"When Meaſures, contrary to the Inclination and Intereſt of the People, are carried on, it is not ſurpriſing their Diſcontents ſhould be frequently breaking out; neither can it be expected, that thoſe Meaſures will be obſerved any longer, than while the reigning Government has Power to inforce Obedience."

Lord Rochfort, we hear, is ſent for from Paris, being deſtined, as ſuppoſed, for ſome conſiderable Poſt in the enſuing new Adminiſtration.

It was this Morning reported, that the Earl of Rochfort will be appointed to ſucceed the Right Hon. Mr. Conway, as one of his Majeſty's Secretaries of State. Some Diſpatches were forwarded to his Lordſhip Yeſterday.

July 18. Letters from Spa, in Germany, give an Account of the Arrival of the Prince and Princeſs of Brunſwick, at that Place, in perfect Health.

Extract of a Letter from Bengal.

"All is Peace in this Country, and is likely to continue ſo. Lord Clive has diſplayed great Capacity and Abilities in the judicious Plan he has eſtabliſhed for preſerving the Company's valuable Poſſeſſions here. Many of his laſt Appointments and Regulations have given ſuch general Satisfaction, that Clamour and Diſcontent are abſorbed in Admiration of his many great and ſhining Virtues."

Lord Clive landed at Portſmouth on Tueſday Evening, in perfect Health, from on board the Britannia, and his Lordſhip arrived in Town Yeſterday.

Yeſterday Lord Clive and Col. Carnac waited on his Majeſty, at St. James's, and were graciouſly received.

After Lord Clive had waited on his Majeſty at St. James's Yeſterday, his Lordſhip went and paid his Compliments to the Court of Directors at the Eaſt-India Houſe, who were ſitting, and received his Lordſhip in the moſt cordial and polite Manner. His Lordſhip, with his late Acquiſitions, is now worth 80,000 l. per Annum, which is more than any other Man poſſeſſes in England.

This Morning the Right Hon. Lord Clive had a numerous Levee of the Nobility and Gentry, at his Houſe in Berkley-Square, to compliment his Lordſhip on his Arrival from the Eaſt-Indies. It is ſaid that his Lordſhip has brought over ſome valuable Preſents for his Majeſty.

It is talked that a great Poſt in the Adminiſtration will be offered to Lord Clive.

'Tis ſaid, that as the Government is now intereſted in the Affairs of the Eaſt-India Company, the Services of Lord Clive will be honoured with a Ducal Coronet.

We hear ſome great Perſonages are ſo alarmed at the News of a certain celebrated Exile's writing the New Hiſtory of England, that ſome ſhrewd Politicians begin to think, with no ſmall Degree of Confidence, that they will procure a Pardon for him, on Condition of his not continuing the ſaid Hiſtory further than the Reign of his late Majeſty King George II. Others are of opinion, that if he does not obtain a Pardon, he will certainly receive a very conſiderable Sum of Money, on the ſame Condition.—So great is their Fear of having their Pains tranſmitted to Poſterity, by a Writer, whoſe Parts and Abilities will inſure Immortality to his Work.

Laſt Week the Firſt Volume in Octavo of Mr. Wilkes's Hiſtory of England, was ſold to a Bookſeller at the Court-End of the Town, for Six Hundred Guineas.

On Monday Evening Two Perſons made their Appearance at Vauxhall, the one aſſuming the Title of a Nobleman, and the other that of a Baronet, attended by French-Horns, &c. but their Behaviour not agreeing with the Titles they had taken, gave Umbrage to ſome Gentlemen preſent, and a general Uproar began, when the Conſtables, with proper Aſſiſtants, were obliged to take them into Cuſtody; His Lordſhip, on Enquiry, appeared to be no leſs than a Maſter-Taylor, and the other a Carpenter.

The New-York Mail of laſt Saturday was detained by Orders from Above, and was not diſpatched Yeſterday in the Evening.

This Morning an Expreſs was ſent off to Falmouth, to be put on board the Packet Boat for New-York, ſaid to contain ſome extraordinary Diſpatches for Sir Henry Moore.

It is with Pleaſure we can inform the Public, that the Legiſlature of the Province of New-York has voluntarily paſſed the Mutiny-Bill, conformable to the Act of Parliament, induced by a Senſe of the Juſtice and Propriety of that Law, without any previous Knowledge of the late Steps taken here to inforce a Compliance. A clear Demonſtration of the Wiſdom of the Meaſures purſued, which were rather calculated for allowing Time to the Colonies to return to Reaſon and their Duty, than for proceeding with Violence againſt them.

July 9. In the Courſe of laſt Seſſions of Parliament, 209 Bills received the Royal Aſſent, 91 Public, and 114 Private, which is the greateſt Number that has received the Royal Aſſent in one Seſſions for ſeveral Years.

There are now living at Pontefract, in Yorkſhire, a labouring Man and his Wife, whoſe Ages together make 217; he being 110, and ſhe 107.

Extract of a Letter from Edinburgh, July 11.

"On Tueſday came on, before the Court, the Deciſion of the Douglas Cauſe; The Opinions of the Judges upon which, ſtand as follows:

For Hamilton, ſpoke on Tueſday, Lord Preſident. Thurſday, Barjarg, Alemore, and Elliock. Friday, Stonefield. This Day, Kennet, and Hails.

For Douglaſs, ſpoke on Tueſday, Lord Stricken. Wedneſday, Kaims, Auchinleck, and Coalſton. Friday, Pitfour. This Day, Gardenſton.

There remains only Juſtice Clerk and Monboddo to ſpeak on Tueſday, one of whom, it is certain, will be for Hamilton, and the other Douglas, whereby there is an Equality, and reſolving upon the Preſident's Caſting Vote, the Hamilton Family carries it here. It is needleſs to mention what a Conſternation this Affair makes in Edinburgh.

By the final Deciſion of the great Douglas Cauſe, not only the Title, but a very conſiderable Fortune, we hear, comes to the Hamilton Family."

Edinburgh, July 11. We are told that Two Engineers, accompanied by ſeveral Gentlemen, are now ſurveying the Grounds between the Friths of Forth and Clyde, in order to fix upon the moſt proper Tract to carry the large Canal, which is propoſed to join the Two Friths. And we are alſo told, that a narrow Canal is projecting between Perth and Forfar, for the Purpoſe of Inland Navigation, which, if carried into Execution, will be productive of the greateſt Advantages to that Place.

NEWPORT, August 31.

The following is a particular and authentic Account of the melancholy Accident which happened on board the Brig Dolphin, commanded by Capt. John Malbone, of this Town, viz. Laſt Wedneſday Night ſhe arrived off Point Judith, from Jamaica, and when within about Five Miles from the Land, at half after Ten o'Clock, the ſame Night, a Negro Boy went down between Decks, amongſt the Rum, where there ſtood ſeveral Puncheons of Water, and (as he ſays) with an Intention to draw ſome Water, but miſtook, and broached a Caſk of Rum; at the ſame Time the Door of the Lanthorn, in which he carried the Candle, being open, and the Candle falling into the Rum, ſet it on Fire: This ſo affrighted the Boy, that he neglected to ſtop the running of the Rum, and in leſs than half a Minute the Head of the Caſk flew out, and the Flames were immediately communicated to Fifteen Caſks more, all between Decks, ſo that all poſſible Means uſed to extinguiſh it proved intirely ineffectual:—The Veſſel was all in Flames in a very few Minutes, and conſequently reduced Twenty-ſix Perſons, being the Number of People, including Paſſengers on board, to a Diſtreſs and Horror that muſt be left to the Reader's Imagination:—Among many of them subsisted the tender and endearing Connections of Husband and Wife, Parent and Child, Brother and Sister, &c. between whom the merciless Flames were now effecting a cruel and inevitable Separation; and it was with the utmost Difficulty that a Soul on board saved his Life.—There were Eleven Passengers, viz. Mr. John Henry, Mr. William Brooks Simlon, Mr. Nathaniel Green, Mrs. Storer, Mrs. Henry, Miss Ann Storer, Miss Frances Storer, Miss Maria Storer, Miss Sarah Storer, and Mr. Henry's Two Children; One 16, the other 4 Months old; Five of whom perished in the following Manner, viz. Mrs. Storer, Miss Sarah Storer, and Mr. Henry's Two Children, being in the Cabbin, were suffocated with the Smoke before the Two small Boats could be got out, they being thrown over with the utmost Difficulty, not having any Thing ready for to hoist them: Mrs. Henry was upon Deck, with her Sisters, and might have been saved with them, but, overcome with maternal Love and Affection, on hearing her Mother cry out, The Children,—O the Children, she ran and threw herself headlong down the Companion, into the Flames, and was there instantly consumed.—The Remainder of the People, to the Number of Twenty-one, got ashore, with Difficulty, in the Two small Boats, not without being wet in landing; some of them, the same Night, with Trouble and Fatigue, got up to the House of Mr. Silas Niles, who received them with great Humanity, and afforded them all the Assistance in his Power, as did also the Rest of the Neighbours.—The Vessel burnt till Eight o'Clock the next Day, when she sunk.

The above Brig belonged to Messrs. Evan and Francis Malbone of this Town, was upwards of 200 Tons Burthen, was allowed to be the best Vessel belonging to the Colony, and was returning from her first Voyage, with a rich and valuable Cargo, and had got within Three or Four Hours Sail of this Harbour when the above Misfortune happened. The Vessel and Cargo were valued at Four Thousand Pounds Sterling, and the Effects of the Passengers at Two Thousand Pounds Sterling.

Last Saturday a Collection was made at the Sabbatarian Church, and Yesterday, at the other Churches in Town, for the Relief of the unfortunate Passengers, who are all Strangers in this Place, and entirely dependent on the Inhabitants.

ANNAPOLIS, SEPTEMBER 24.

His Excellency the Governor has been pleased to prorogue the General Assembly of this Province, which was to have met here on Monday the 5th of OCTOBER next, to Monday, the 2d of NOVEMBER next.

The PUBLIC are desired to be very circumspect in receiving the Maryland Three Pound Bills of CREDIT, as we hear Three Gentlemen of eminent Abilities, one in Charles County, one in Virginia, and one in Frederick, have been forced to take Lodgings in HOUSES OF SECURITY, in the above Places, and no Doubt has passed many of them; but, which may nevertheless be easily discovered, as they are very ill executed.

ANNAPOLIS, Sept. 24, 1767.

THE Subscriber, takes this Method of returning his most humble and hearty Thanks, to those Ladies and Gentlemen who have honoured him with their Children, during his Residence here. And, as some Complaints have been made, in relation to Order observed in his Dancing-School, he begs Leave to place them to their proper Origin, viz. An extraordinary Indulgence generally granted them by their Parents, aided by their own natural Frowardness, and a Knowledge of Private Instructions given the Master, in relation to a tender and civil Usage of them; or, in other Words, positive Instructions to spoil them. He is conscious he has never yet required of any Child more than an Obedience, which is absolutely necessary for their attaining a Knowledge in his Profession: And, as any Child, under such unlimited Restrictions, is capable of spoiling a whole School (in which Order is its greatest Recommendation) he is determined not to keep a Day-School longer than the 3d of next Month, he having experienced, how hard it is to please both Parent and Child.——Therefore all Persons having Demands against him, are desired to bring them in, and those indebted to him are requested to make speedy Payment, which will much oblige,

Their humble Servant, A. B. EBERT.

N. B. I cannot omit returning Thanks to a Lady of Distinction, in this Manner, not having an Opportunity per Linguam, for her kind Recommendation of me in this City, especially in the Market-House; but would just observe to this very civil Lady, that she ought to look inward, and see what she is HERSELF, before she attempts traducing the Character, and depriving a Stranger of Bread, which he only endeavours to get in an honest Way.—My Pen not being capable of painting her many eminent Qualities, I wish her better Success with some Body else; but, Non procul à propria stippite poma cadunt.

 I propose keeping an EVENING SCHOOL.
